Hollywood to Host Business Training Workshop on Feb. 7th
Workshop is Free and Open to the Public

HOLLYWOOD, FL – Have you always wanted to start your own business? Before you make that big step into owning your own company, you should mark your calendar and plan to attend this workshop.

The City of Hollywood's Business and Economic Development Department will host a business training workshop, "Introduction to the Business Plan," on Wednesday, February 7th from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Hollywood Branch Library, 2600 Hollywood Boulevard.

The workshop, which will be conducted by the Florida Atlantic University Small Business Development Center, is free and open to the public. Anyone contemplating starting a business should attend this workshop to learn what it takes to start-up and maintain a successful business.

Registration deadline is February 5th. To register, please contact Jessica Mazzotti by email at jmazzotti@hollywoodfl.org. For more information, please contact in the Department of Business and Economic Development at (954) 921-3388.
