Hollywood to Host HIV/AIDS Awareness Workshop on May 19
Workshop is Free and Open to the Public

HOLLYWOOD, FL – Have any questions or want information on AIDS or HIV? Before you assume or make any life-changing decisions, you should mark your calendar and plan to attend this workshop.

The City of Hollywood will host a HIV/AIDS awareness workshop, on Saturday, May 19, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the David Park Community Center, 108 N. 33rd Court.

The workshop is free and open to the public and will include topics such as the history of HIV, prevention, prognosis and treatment and much more. Attendees can also visit various booths that will provide information on HIV/AIDS screening, becoming an HIV counselor, Broward House, Planned Parenthood and blood pressure screenings. Refreshments will be provided.

The workshop will also feature live performances by members of Church of God of Prophecy, New Jerusalem, First Baptist Church and Maranatha Church.

For more information, contact Barbara Lawson, Social Services Coordinator, at (954) 924-2954 or Vincent Moss, Neighborhood Resource Specialist, at (954) 924-2939.
