Hollywood Residents to Gain Understanding of Code Process at Citizen's Code Enforcement Academy
Four Week Session to Provide Hands-on Experience to Attendees

HOLLYWOOD, FL – In an effort to educate and empower residents, the City of Hollywood will be holding its Citizens' Code Enforcement Academy. The first session will be held on Thursday, September 7 at 6:30 p.m. at the Hollywood Branch Library, 2600 Hollywood Boulevard. Additional sessions will follow each Thursday through September 28. All sessions, offered at no cost to residents, will start at 6:30 p.m. and end at approximately 9:00 p.m.

Citizens interested in participating will attend a four-session course, each of which will focus on different topics that will educate residents on how the code enforcement process works. During each session, the Office of Code Enforcement will take a proactive approach to delivering information about pertinent issues affecting City residents, along with other Citywide departments in a coordinated, educational approach. In addition, participants will have an opportunity to ride-along with a code enforcement officer.

Certificates will be awarded to citizens who complete the entire 10-hour course.

For additional information, or to reserve a space, contact Everett Lawson, Office of Code Enforcement, at (954) 921-3060.
