City of Hollywood Offices Open on Tuesday
City Administration will Monitor Storm Throughout the Day

HOLLYWOOD, FL – City of Hollywood employees will report to work on Tuesday, August 29, 2006 as the City will remain open for business. City Manager Cameron Benson and his administrative staff will monitor Tropical Storm Ernesto throughout the day on Tuesday to determine if and when offices will be closed.

In addition to City offices, Hollywood's Emergency Operations Center is open with partial activation.

CLOSURES FOR PARKS AND RECREATION

All athletic fields are closed at this time.

Holland Park, located at Johnson Street and Northlake Drive, will remain open until 11:00 p.m. tonight (Monday, August 28) to accommodate boaters.

Beginning on Tuesday, August 29, 2006, preschool and after school programs at Hollywood Parks, Recreation and Cultural Arts Centers will be closed to coincide with Broward County Public Schools.

For more information, please contact Public Relations and Information Manager Alison Hibbert at (305) 495-3102.
